

OUR VISION

is to be the leading provider of relevant local information that engages our community.

OUR MISSION is to provide news and information that empowers our audience, engages our community and impacts the world.

About Us

BEACON MEDIA NEWS

is a staple of San Gabriel Valley as we continue to provide hyper-local news throughout the Communities we serve, spanning into our third decade. Our group of 27 newspapers -- notably the Arcadia Weekly, Monrovia Weekly, Pasadena Weekly and Sierra Madre Weekly (AMPS) -- covers more cities than any other weekly newspaper group within in our footprint. Combined with our digital products, AMPS reaches an estimated 40,000 weekly readers, visitors, followers and opted-in e-newsblast recipients.

Our dedicated editorial staff and passionate reporters have carved a successful niche that empowers our readers with relevant community news and information in politics, education, business, real estate, local events, health, entertainment and sports.

Additionally, our veteran sales and marketing team, armed with decades of experience in local print and digital media advertising sales, has the expertise to confidently guide you in making effective marketing decisions to attract, retain and grow your customer base.

Altogether, our team works as one to empower and engage our advertisers and readers with tools and information necessary to improve their everyday lives.

Our Portfolio

Our platform of products and services command widespread brand awareness and loyalty from our thousands of local readers, visitors and followers. Beacon Media News can provide your company with an array of advertising opportunities to attract your desired customers to help grow your business.
